08	UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,) CASE NO. MJ21-171
09	Plaintiff,	CASE NO. NIJ21-171
10	v.	DETENTION ORDER
11	GUMARO MANUEL GONZALEZ-FELIX,
12	Defendant.
13
14	Offense charged: Possession of Controlled Substances with Intent to Distribute Date of Detention Hearing: March 26, 2021. The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community. is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against defendant as to both dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

- 2. Defendant's criminal record includes previous drug-related charges and failure to appear with warrant activity. Defendant is associated with alias identifiers. He lacks legal status in this country. He was not interviewed by Pretrial Services, so his background information is unknown or unverified. He does not contest detention.
- 3. Taken as a whole, the record does not effectively rebut the presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- 1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United State Pretrial Services Officer.
